

Marathon Quilters Guild

Hopkinton, MA 01748

Whether you are a quilter or would like to learn more about quilting, please consider joining us this year at one of our monthly meetings. Marathon Quilters Guild, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation whose primary purposes are to educate, inspire, and participate in community quilting projects for charities. We represent all styles and methods of quilting and are always learning something new with outside and in-house experts in a variety of fiber arts. Our guild currently has approximately 30 members from Hopkinton and neighboring towns.

Marathon Quilters Guild meetings begin in September each year and run through June. Meetings are every 2nd Tuesday of the month, from 6:30 - 9:00 p.m. We meet at the Faith Community Church (146 E. Main Street in Hopkinton). Visit our website for a list of speakers and activities: www.marathonquilters.com. Annual guild membership dues are still only $25.
