

Marathon Quilt Guild

January 2009 Newsletter

Officers:

Sarah Gravestock
President
Karen Swiech
Vice President
Linda Grant
Treasurer
Kelsey Ullman
Historian
Dawn Stewart
Publicity and
Web Administer
Colleen Barnes
Newsletter
Paula Conrad
Programs
Joyce Morganelli
Programs
Margaret Mackay
Quilt Show
Chris Meyers
Charity Quilts
Susan Tata
Webmaster

Hello Ladies,
Can you believe it is 2009?
It will be a great year to make some quilts.
Happy quilting,
Colleen

Upcoming MQG events

1/8/09 January meeting
Beauty and the Beast show and tell.
New York beauty Overview
1/31/09
New York Beauty Workshop
2/12/09
Secret Valentines
Preview for the Embellishment workshop with Karen

Hosts

Laima and Valorie - food
Linda- drinks
We still need someone for drinks on 3/12/09 and drinks on 5/14/09.
See Colleen To Sign up.

Happy
Birthdays to Marjorie

Things to remember

- Show and tell
- Checkbook and calendar for workshop signup
- Saw tooth star blocks for charity and raffle quilts.

- Wear your name tag
- Bring a beautiful quilt and a beastly quilt to share
- Power of the quilt finished tops to hand over.
- Finish the secret Valentines. They are due next month

Extra

From Charlton Sewing Center

30th Anniversary Sale 1/30/09

30% off your purchase of $30 or more

(Does not include Handi Quilter items, Horn of America or previously discounted items).

Upcoming shows, exhibits, etc.

The Faith Ringgold show has opened at the Danforth museum in Framingham. For information on the show go to www.danforthmuseum.org.

Amy Ropple is the guest speaker at Quilters Connection on Monday, January 19. The meeting is held from 7 pm at the Arsenal Center for the Arts, 421 Arsenal Street, Watertown. Check out her website www.amyroppl.com. There is a $5 entrance fee for non-members.

Christine Fries-Ureel is the guest speaker at The Rhododendron Needlers Quilt Guild on Wednesday, January 21. The meeting is held 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the Italian American Club in Walpole. The topic is "Quilting is more than happiness; it's Ecstasy".

If you love her work, it is definitely worth making the journey. $5 entrance for non-members

Rhododendron Needlers Quilt Guild presents:

"Traditions and Treasures "Quilt show

Blue Hills Regional Vocational Technical School

800 Randolph Street, Canton, MA

1/25/09 10 am to 5 pm and 4/26/09 10 am to 4 pm

Admission is $5. Children under 12 are free. Free parking.

Hundreds of Traditional and Contemporary quilts on display, vendors, a silent auction of small quilts, raffle quilt made by guild members, gift baskets to be raffled and a boutique featuring quilting related items.