

Hi Girly Girls!

Sorry for sending this out so late but I only got my power back last night. Needless to say this is going to be a super short newsletter. I certainly hope if any of you lost power, you found creative ways to stay extra warm ;-)

For our November 8th meeting we are having Debbie Wendt give us an exciting lecture and trunk show on Egyptian Tent Makers. Debbie lived in Egypt for 8 years and has a large collection of this work and other crafts from Egypt. She will share her knowledge of the history of Egypt as well as the work of the tent makers. This is sure to be a great trunk show/lecture. Hope to see you there!

We will be collecting for the Hopkinton Food Pantry this month. They are in need of Thanksgiving items such as canned veggies, stuffing, gravy and cranberry sauce.

Happy Birthday to Bea! Hope you have the best celebration.

Hostess reminder:

drinks - Colleen and Becky

snacks - Yvonne

Please bring in your show and tell.

Looking forward to seeing on the 8th!

Laima
