

January 10, 2012

Hi Girly Girls!

Hope everyone had some down time and are ready to start 2012 with enthusiasm and gumption! I know I am and can't wait to start some new quilting projects. Hope to see you either at the January meeting or the January workshop.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

No Birthdays this month, too cold to come out of a warm comfy place!

THIS MONTHS MEETING

This months meeting is all about scrap busting. Most of us have fabric left over from previous projects, or fabric pieces that just aren't large enough for new projects. Before you throw these pieces away or stuff them under your stash never to be seen again . . . we just might have the solution for you! Our program girls will be demonstrating different patterns that will turn all that left over fabric and scraps into beautiful quilts. So before you throw them away come to the January meeting and get some ideas.

Mystery Quilt Clue #4 will be handed out.

January Workshop

We are having a charity/work on anything workshop on January 21st. This workshop will focus on getting the charity quilts finished, but if you are working on your own project and are desperate to get it done, come anyway. It is a day of quilting! I know there are charity quilt tops done, but need to be quilted, so maybe we can baste them and get some members to quilt them. There will be coffee and tea, but if you would like to share some baked goodies, they are always welcome.

JANIACS

Hello Janiacs!

Merry Happy Holidays to you and yours! I hope everyone is enjoying this Season of Love, Joy, and Light!

It seems the consensus for Dear Jane Meetings is the 2nd Sunday of each month, so January will be the 8th, February the 12th, and March the 11th.

The address again is 35 Loring Drive in Framingham and I will plan to be here starting at 3:30 PM to sew. My cell is 617-852-5434 if anyone needs directions along the way...

Looking forward to seeing you all in January!
