June Newsletter

June Social

Let's celebrate this amazing year; a year with a successful quilt show and the amazing invitational marathon quilt project. On June 9th we will meet one last time before our summer break. Last week Nancy sent out a sign-up email (so that we all don't bring dessert). We will meet in the Café area of the church, just inside the main doors to the right. If you missed the sign-up email, here is the link. Potluck Sign-up

Belated Thank You!

A special thank you to Colleen for her presentation of Fractured Quilts at our April meeting! The concept is SO unique and it was good to hear her describe the process, things learned along with methods she will and/or won't do again.

*From the Polyarts Committee; "We are thrilled to offer you a spot for the 51st Annual Hopkinton Polyarts! The date is Saturday, September 12, 2026. The event runs from 10 am - 4 pm, RAIN OR SHINE. Set up begins at 7 am. Please also join our event on Facebook, and share with your followers." It is happening! Rita Sassaman has agreed to be the coordinator for Polyarts. Polyarts is just one part of our Boutique's opportunities. Please contact Rita if you are willing to be on the Boutique team for the next year. There are information files of previous years - pricing, inventory lists, sign-up sheets, labels, etc. as well as inventory remaining after the quilt show. All members can always donate items to benefit the guild or consign something for the Boutique.

There is so much more to the Marathon than 26.2 miles, and together we have created a visual representation of community, culture and experience. Click the link if you missed the show on channel 5. Go the Distance
